Subject : Earthquake in Croatia

Dear Colleagues,

With the Corona-virus pandemic looming over all of us, Croatia was confronted with a massive earthquake last Sunday. It injured people and caused massive damage. It increases the risks of further spreading the virus while adding a burden to the first responders, emergency workers and those in health and care, police and civil protection. Dealing with the aftermath to ensure safety, housing and work is an additional task for local, regional and national public administrations already strained.

On behalf of EPSU and its 8 million members we are with those injured, those who lost their homes and maybe their workplace and work. The work done by so many public service workers to deal with the aftermath is recommendable.

We express our solidarity to you all in what are difficult times. Please let us know if we can be of assistance.

In Solidarity,

Jan Willem Goudriaan
